

MANHATTAN - Built-in Open to Front - Denver F6 720

Design, functionality, and quality are the focal points of this stunning fireplace, available with both bioethanol burners and Hybrid Mist technology. Manhattan is a built-in biofireplace that breaks away from smooth surfaces. It is ideal for interrupting the wall and room's design with its unique and eye-catching form.

In addition to the standard dimensions shown, Manhattan can also be custom-sized to fit your needs. The fireplace is available in various finishes, with black being the standard colour. If you prefer a different finish, please contact us for more options.
